TANG Siu Hei
Associate of Science in Information Systems Development
Graduated in 2011

Graduating with credit in 2011, Siu Hei then continued his studies at the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) for the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science. During his studies at HKUST, he completed his Final Year Project by cooperating with HWK Investment Limited to develop a series of new algorithms for analyzing stock market data. He also joined the job placement scheme and worked for HSBC as a programmer in a summer internship. Soon after his graduation from HKUST, he became a Consultant at Oracle Hong Kong. Now he works at the multinational BNP Paribas as IT Analyst, responsible for buy-side applications.
