

UOW College Hong Kong / Community College of City University
Student English Enhancement Unit (SEE U)
Daily English Practice

Week 5

#22 What is happening in the ocean?

Skills/ Objectives: Reading and Writing

PART 1: Before you read...

Preparatory questions

1. What are the functions of the ocean?

Vocabulary

1. Plankton (noun): Very small animals or plants that float in the sea
2. Unravel (verb): to fail
3. Fragile (adjective): easily damaged or harmed
4. Harmony (noun): a situation which things are suitable together
5. Carry out (verb): to conduct, perform

PART 2: Article

This article explains the importance of the ocean and the relationship between it and climate change.

What is happening in the ocean? (click the link read the article)

<https://climatekids.nasa.gov/ocean/>

(Source: NASA Climate Kids)

PART 3: Let's discuss!

1. What have you learnt from the article about the importance of the ocean to climate change?
2. How can we protect the ocean?

PART 4: Writing

Write 80 – 100 words to provide some solutions to save our earth.

PART 5: Learn further

1. 10 interesting things about water

This page introduces 10 interesting things about water.

<https://climatekids.nasa.gov/10-things-water/>

2. 7 Ways you can help save the ocean

WWF provides seven suggestions to help save the ocean.

<https://www.worldwildlife.org/stories/7-ways-you-can-help-save-the-ocean>

3. 10 Things You Can Do to Save the Ocean

The national geographic suggests ten ways people can do to save the ocean.

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/environment/oceans/take-action/10-things-you-can-do-to-save-the-ocean/>

Prepared by Dr. Cherry Chan