

UOW College Hong Kong / Community College of City University
Student English Enhancement Unit (SEE U)
Daily English Practice

Week 1

#52 Who's helping McRefugees?

Skills/ Objectives: Reading

PART 1: Before you read...

Preparatory questions

1. Have you heard of the term “McRefugees”? What are they?
2. What problems are homeless people facing in Hong Kong?

Vocabulary

1. Plight (noun): an unpleasant situation
2. Slumped (adjective): sitting still by having one’s head low and shoulders forward
3. Promptly (adverb): quickly
4. Tragic (adjective): very sad
5. Outrage (noun): a strong feeling of anger

PART 2: Article

This article discusses the issue of McRefugees in Hong Kong.

Who's helping McRefugees? (click the link read the article)

<https://yp.scmp.com/news/features/article/99661/whos-helping-mcrefugees>

(Source: Young Post)

PART 3: Let’s discuss

1. According to the article, who are the McRefugees? What did you feel after reading the article?
2. What did you learn from the article?

PART 4: Learn further

The night time 'McRefugees' of Hong Kong

The reporter Juliana Liu spent a night in McDonald’s and met some of the McRefugees.

<https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-china-34546807>

Prepared by Dr. Cherry Chan