

UOW College Hong Kong / Community College of City University
Student English Enhancement Unit (SEE U)
Daily English Practice

Week 4

#166 Five types of voluntary work: Helping families in need

Skills/ Objectives: Reading and Writing Skills

PART 1: Before you read...

Preparatory questions

Qt 1: "The best job in the world is one that pays well." How much do you agree with that?

Qt 2: Would you be happy doing a job that pays poorly but it is meaningful?

Qt 3: Have you ever done voluntary work, for no pay at all?

Qt 4: Have you heard of Po Leung Kuk?

Vocabulary

- abduction (noun): to force someone to go somewhere with you, often using threats or violence.
- trafficking (noun): the act of buying or selling goods illegally.
- benevolence (noun): the act of giving help to people or organizations that need it.
- beneficiary (noun): a person or group who receives money, advantages, etc.

PART 2: Article for Reading

To one of Hong Kong's most time-honoured charity organizations, Po Leung Kuk, volunteers are always needed for its kindergartens, nurseries, museums, elderly homes and in other areas:

About Po Leung Kuk

<https://www.poleungkuk.org.hk/en/about-us/about-po-leung-kuk>

PART 3: Writing Practice

Compare and contrast such well-established charity organizations in Hong Kong, like Po Leung Kuk, Tung Wah Group of Hospitals, Caritas, and Pok Oi Hospital.

Ask yourself this solemn question: Where do you think you can lend a helping hand? Send your thoughts to: see.u@cccu.edu.hk. Remember! Our SEE U teachers are always ready to give you feedback.